New York, NY – United World Leaders: Lives Amplified (the "Institution") proudly announces the addition of Jewel Howard Taylor, former Vice President of Liberia, to its distinguished membership.

Vice President Jewel Howard Taylor is widely recognized for her strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. Her extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution's Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution's efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

Jewel Howard-Taylor served as the 30th Vice President of Liberia from 2018 to 2024, becoming the first female Vice President in the nation's history and the first female President of the Liberian Senate. Prior to her vice presidency, she represented Bong County in the Liberian Senate from 2006 to 2018, where she chaired critical committees including the Women Legislative Caucus and the Education and Public Administration Committee, earning recognition as "Senator of the Year" for several consecutive years from 2008 to 2015. A highly educated professional with degrees in economics, banking, finance, and law, she previously held senior positions including Deputy Governor of the National Bank of Liberia and President of the Agriculture Cooperative Development Bank. As one of Liberia's foremost advocates for women's empowerment, she received numerous accolades including the Women Activist Award in 2016, the Pan African Award on Leadership Excellence and Women Empowerment, and was named one of the 100 Most Influential African Women in 2019, with Newsweek Magazine voting her the 2nd Most Powerful Female Politician in Liberia in 2011.

United World Leaders: Lives Amplified represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
